

DATA PROTECTION STATEMENT

This is a typical Data Protection Statement provided by insurers participating in the Insurance Malta Anti-Fraud Platform. In this Data Protection Statement, the participating insurers are represented by the pseudonym “XYZ-Insurance”.

Data Protection Statement

XYZ-Insurance (“we”, “us”, “our”) is the data controller in relation to personal data held about you or any other person whom you insure or propose to insure with us.

By making a request for insurance with XYZ-Insurance, you acknowledge that you, and all persons whom you propose to insure with us, accept this Data Protection Statement. You should therefore show this notice to anyone whom you propose to insure with us.

It may be necessary for us to collect sensitive personal data (such as medical conditions or injuries) relating to you or any other person insured or to be insured under the policy, or who may claim under the policy. You should get their explicit consent before sharing their sensitive personal data with us. By making a request for insurance with XYZ-Insurance, or making a claim under this policy, you acknowledge that you and all such persons are giving their explicit consent to such data being processed in the manner and for the purposes outlined here.

Under the terms of your policy, you should give us notice about any accident which may give rise to a claim under the policy. When you give us notice about any such accident, you acknowledge that you, and all persons who may claim under the policy, accept this Data Protection Statement. You should therefore likewise show this notice to anyone claiming under this policy.

We will use this information to manage your insurance policy, to assess creditworthiness, and for underwriting, claim handling and fraud prevention purposes. In order to provide you with products and services this information will be held in the data systems of XYZ-Insurance and / or of our intermediaries. We may also collect information from other sources and check the data you provide us with such information.
